A Lifeline for Marriages

Hope for Your Relationship

Healthy relationships take work and often couples need help navigating the disappointment and pain of marriage problems.

For many couples, it has been ages since they knew the joy of a loving relationship or meaningful communication. When infidelity, alcohol or drug abuse or violence is involved, the situation may seem hopeless.

Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vie) is a French word meaning “rediscovery.” Retrouvaille helps couples put the pieces back together and rebuild loving relationships.

Your Dream is Our Goal

Some who attend Retrouvaille have already separated or divorced and want to try again. Many are struggling to stay together, with feelings of loneliness, disillusionment and even misery. What all these couples have in common is a sincere desire to build a stable, healthy, loving marriage.

Retrouvaille Weekend

Retrouvaille begins with a weekend that helps couples re-establish communication and insight into their life.

You will not be asked to share your problems with the group. The weekend will help you discover how listening, forgiveness, communication, and the dialogue process are powerful aids for building a loving and lasting relationship.

Ongoing Support

Just as marriages do not reach the crisis point in a weekend, forgiveness, healing and change take time. Follow-up sessions will continue the renewal started on the Retrouvaille weekend.

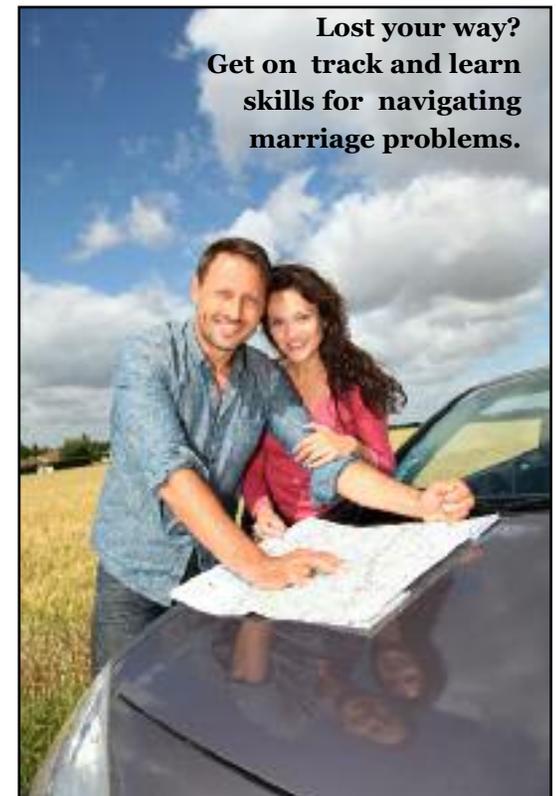

These follow-up gatherings of the Retrouvaille process offer a more relaxed setting to explore other subjects relating to marriage and love, to renew your commitment, and to develop new insights and skills.

Retrouvaille History

Retrouvaille began as a Catholic program in Quebec in 1977. In 1982, the Toronto community began sharing the program with other communities throughout Canada and North America.

Today, Retrouvaille communities have spread around the world, including Central and South America, Africa, Europe, Australia, the Philippines and the Caribbean.

Retrouvaille is open to married couples of all ages, regardless of their religious background.
