Dear People of God of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon,

After a prayerful discernment process by our Diocesan Pastoral Council – which includes representatives from every corner of our diocese, from parishes large and small, urban and rural, including lay, ordained and religious, engaged in a range of ministries – a Pastoral Plan has recently been prepared to provide direction, goals and priorities for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon. Details of the Pastoral Plan can be found on our Diocesan website: <https://rcdos.ca/missionandgoals/>.

Therefore, having consulted the said Pastoral Council, and in accordance with canons 375, § 1 and 514, §1 of the Code of Canon Law, I, Mark Andrew Hagemoen, by the Grace of God, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon, do hereby declare and establish the Diocesan Pastoral Plan to provide the pastoral direction of our diocese in the near future.

I ask the Holy Spirit to guide us in moving forward with this renewed vision for our diocese and call on all the faithful to join in the mission to “Proclaim Christ and the Kingdom of God.”

Blessings to you, sincerely,

✠ Most Reverend Mark A. Hagemoen
Bishop of Saskatoon

 In all things we are rooted in Christ,
in His desire to bring God's love to all peoples.
