From Gifts to Relationships

How the Foundation and our parishes can grow generosity by knowing, inviting and engaging our donors

Parish Presentation • Fall 2026

What the data tells us

The Foundation has strong donor value and retention — but growth depends on welcoming new people into relationship.

77.6%

2025 donor retention

7.5%

2025 acquisition rate

$701

2025 revenue per donor

11.3%

active donors sustaining

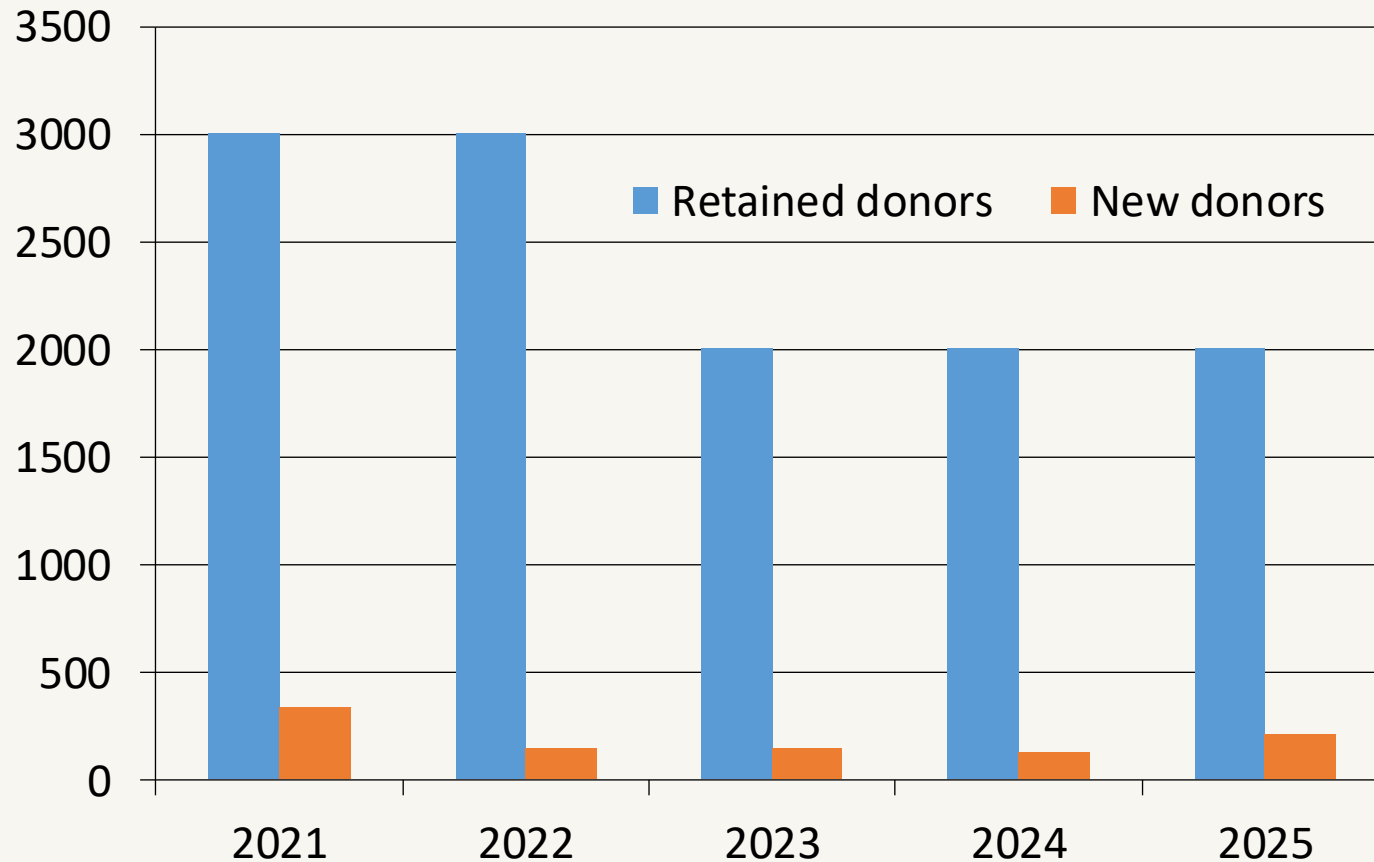

Retention remains a major strength: people who give often continue to give.

Acquisition improved in 2025, but active donor growth was 2.5% year over year.

The opportunity is not only to ask for gifts — it is to create more ways for people to become known to us.

Our challenge: the donor pipeline

The report's donor mix shows why new donor capture matters.

Every parish interaction can be an entry point.

A new giver is not simply a transaction.

When we capture contact information, we gain the ability to thank, invite, inform and listen. Without information, the relationship can end at the collection basket.

Capture the person — not only the gift

The goal is permission-based relationship building.

Offer multiple ways to give: online, recurring, QR code, tap-to-pay, cheque and cash.

Whenever possible, invite donors to provide name, email and parish connection.

Make online giving easy: the report highlights reduced friction, integrated payments and stronger conversion as benefits of digital giving.

Use every touchpoint — events, ministry programs, parish registrations and appeals — to invite people into ongoing communication.

The BAA newsletter should be front and centre

The newsletter is more than campaign communication — it is a doorway into the mission.

Share it with every new donor, not only established BAA supporters.

Lead with impact stories: someone may recognize a ministry that helped their family, parish or community.

A donor may enter through one ministry and discover a wider Catholic mission they want to support.

Include a clear next step: give, subscribe, volunteer, attend, pray, or learn more.

Make the newsletter easy to find in print, parish email, websites, QR codes and welcome materials.

Think of the donor journey as a ministry of invitation useful contact information.

INVITE

way to participate.

What parishes can do now

Small, consistent practices can create a much stronger diocesan donor community.

Put a QR code or online giving invitation wherever people encounter the parish.

Ask new donors if they would like to receive the BAA newsletter and Foundation impact updates.

At events, collect contact information with a clear reason: “We’d like to keep you connected to the impact you make possible.”

Make thank-you and acknowledgement part of the process, not an afterthought.

Share donor and ministry stories regularly so people can see where generosity goes.

Why digital giving matters

7X+

year-over-year online growth*

2X+

average conversion rate*

2X+

average gift amount*

The Blackbaud report positions online giving as a strategic growth lever because it reduces friction and simplifies reconciliation.

For parishes, the deeper value is identification: digital gifts can create a record that allows future acknowledgement and engagement.

*These figures are Blackbaud's online-giving benchmarks presented in the attached report, not DSCF-specific results.

Data is pastoral when we use it well

Good information helps us care for relationships, not merely count transactions.

Know who is new, who has stayed, and who may have drifted away.

Use donor information to communicate what matters to them — without overwhelming them.

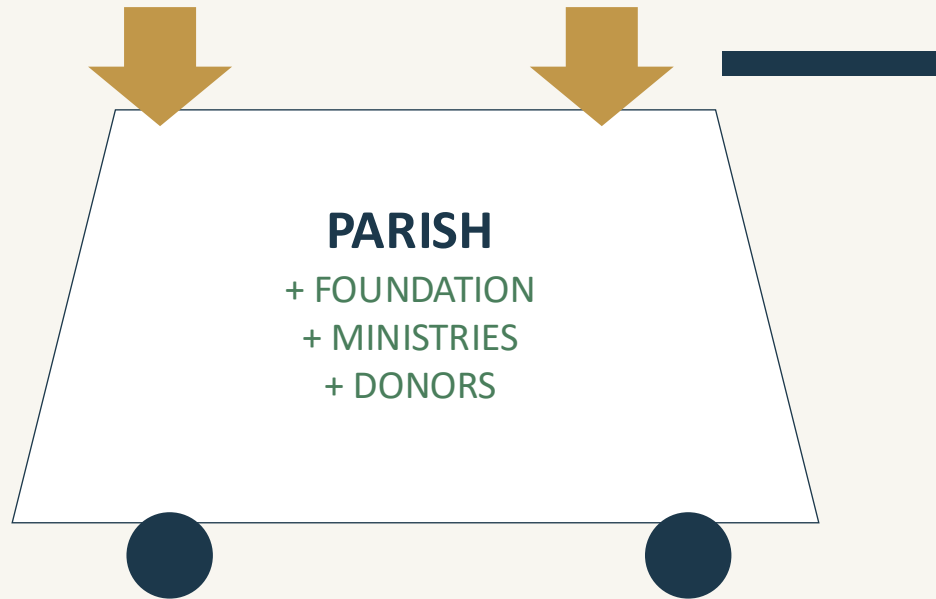

Invite people into ministries and opportunities connected to their interests.

Protect trust: collect information transparently and use it respectfully.

The purpose of better data is better stewardship — gratitude, relationship and mission.

Stewardship is relationship — and mission is shared

“As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace.” — 1 Peter 4:10

One hand on one side

We can work very hard and still go in circles when each part of the Church pushes alone.

One hand in the middle

We may stay straight for a while, but when the road becomes difficult, one person or one parish cannot carry the whole mission.

Both hands together

When parishes, ministries, the Foundation and donors work together — and remove what no longer serves the mission — we find balance, strength and direction.

The Catholic call

Christ has already given the Church gifts, charisms, people and tools. Stewardship asks us to receive them humbly and use them for one another rather than allowing ego, habit or fear to convince us that we must do everything alone.

Our invitation to every parish

Create opportunities to be known.

Capture information when people choose to connect.

Share the BAA newsletter and the stories of our ministries.

Invite the next act of generosity — time, talent, treasure and prayer.

When people see the impact, they can find the part of the mission that speaks to them.

Announcements

Ministries – Plan for the Year

Finance and Administration

Parish Contact Form

- New process this year: jotform link in the email and in the portal
- Please fill in once you have all of the information available relevant to your parish. You can save your work and resume later.
 - Please submit only once. If you need to make changes after submission, please contact Nonye.
- Target due date of September 30
- Note the need for sacramental planning information and contacts!

Canada Revenue Agency

- CRA is moving ahead with their plan to wind down paper transactions
- Parishes are encouraged to begin the process of signing up for the portal access for the parish
- For Parishes that have a BN under the diocese (107307191 RR00XX), Greg will be able to grant access to your parish information, once the person has been accepted by CRA process and has a RepID. Note that for those parishes that have a unique BN, you will need to work directly with CRA for access as the diocese cannot oversee your BN.
- CRA: Director Sheet (annual) vs. Portal list

Diocesan Mission Appeals Process

- The process is undergoing change to align with changes to CRA Charities requirements – particularly around funds being donated outside Canada.
- 4 phases: 1) application and approval by the committee headed by Fr. Joseph Salihu, 2) collecting funds and remitting to the dioceses – like a special collection. Use code, 3) agreement letter with receiving diocese and transfer of funds, 4) report produced by receiving diocese and submitted to our diocese. Files to be kept for 7 years.
- Trialling the process right now with 1 diocese. We will tweak and then communicate out more details for moving forward.

Parish Development Fund – Governance Renewal Update

- Last year – we introduced the notion that the governance of the PDF was under review with the intent of making some changes to reflect the changes that have happened in accounting and charities requirements since its inception in the 1980s.
- For the past year, the DFC has been exploring and researching various ways to adapt the governance of the PDF while maintaining its simplicity and vision. This is proving more complex and difficult than initially anticipated. The work continues.

Insurance 2026-27

- There is likely a very significant change happening to our insurance for the coming insurance year.
 - This is to be confirmed within a week by the western/northern bishops.
 - Reminder:
 - we are part of APEX: A licensed insurance reciprocal owned by the 20 participating Episcopal Corporations in the Western Conference of Catholic Bishops. APEX was originally formed in 1997 under the name of the Asset Protection Group. In 2003 it was registered as an insurance reciprocal in the Province of Saskatchewan and adopted the name of APEX.
 - APEX procures our insurance each year with the help of our brokerage firm of ACERA.
 - ACERA continually looks to tailoring our coverage for parishes/dioceses and looks for the most cost-effective way to get coverage.

Insurance 2026-27

- What may change?
 - ACERA searches the market for insurers to provide the unique coverages that we require to operate. The insurance market continues to evolve and change. Changes in the market have brought additional insurers interested in providing coverage for our portfolio.
 - Additionally, with more competition, comes the ability to structure our coverage in a better way that enables the same coverage, with better pricing.
 - The proposed change would bring on board a number of new insurers to our portfolio, providing at least the same coverage or better (depending on the coverage such as equipment breakdown, liability, property,...).
 - This could be achieved at a significant savings to our past year.

Insurance 2026-27

- If this change happens, what does it mean for us at our parish?
 - The types of insurance, wording, coverages ... all would remain the same (in certain areas, there would actually be more and better coverage).
 - Your interface with insurance matters would not feel any different (brokerage the same, claims reporting the same, adjusters are the same). The main change will be for our brokers interfacing with different insurers on insurance claims.
 - There would be a change to the rates for PRC insurance. Up until now, if you chose PRC insurance, there was a ~30% increase to the premium. This increase would not continue. PRC and RC rates would be the same.
 - Overall insurance premiums for APEX would drop from ~$10.9M to ~$6.5M. How that translates to our local context is TBD.

Insurance 2026-27

- Why is this possible now?
 - ACERA and APEX have been working on this new model for a while now, but what was lacking was other insurers interested in insuring our liability component. For many reasons, that market has shifted and now we have options. Ecclesiastical was the only option for that coverage.
 - This is a lot of work in the background, but given the savings, it is very much worth it.
 - The new companies to the portfolio are all rated A and above. Stability and security are the prime interests of APEX so that has rooted this work.

Insurance 2026-27

- The 'desk valuation change' for construction costs in our regions for 2026 is +5.1%. So the value of our Replacement Cost properties will have this automatically built into your insurance for 2026-27 on October 1.
- For Partial Replacement Cost properties, this increase will NOT be reflected. Properties with PRC need to manually ask for a change in valuation, if desired.
- November – invoices should arrive along with a memo detailing how the insurance plan has changed. This process may take more time this year if the change proceeds.

 Please pay close attention to insurance communication this year

Diocesan Assessment Policy

- Policy is under revision – last was 2007
 - The donations / fundraising landscape has changed a great deal and we need to adjust our policy to support our new ways of receiving donations.
- Main areas of attention:
 - Clarifying what revenue is/isn't assessable
 - Dealing differently with bequests to parishes
 - Clarifying and coordinating with the Foundation to ensure equitable and fair treatment of the variety of donations and pathways we see now.
- More details to come over the year

Conflict & confidentiality

1.

Margo is the Parish Life Director. Her foster daughter, Julia, is the accountant.

2.

Michael recently resigned. Brian calls to vent about his frustrations with a project, Michael's replacement, and recent developments at the organization.

What issue might each situation raise?

KEY TAKEAWAYS

Two simple checks

Easy to remember.
Easy to apply.

01

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Separate reporting

Where practical, family members should not report directly to one another.

02

CONFIDENTIALITY

Pause before sharing

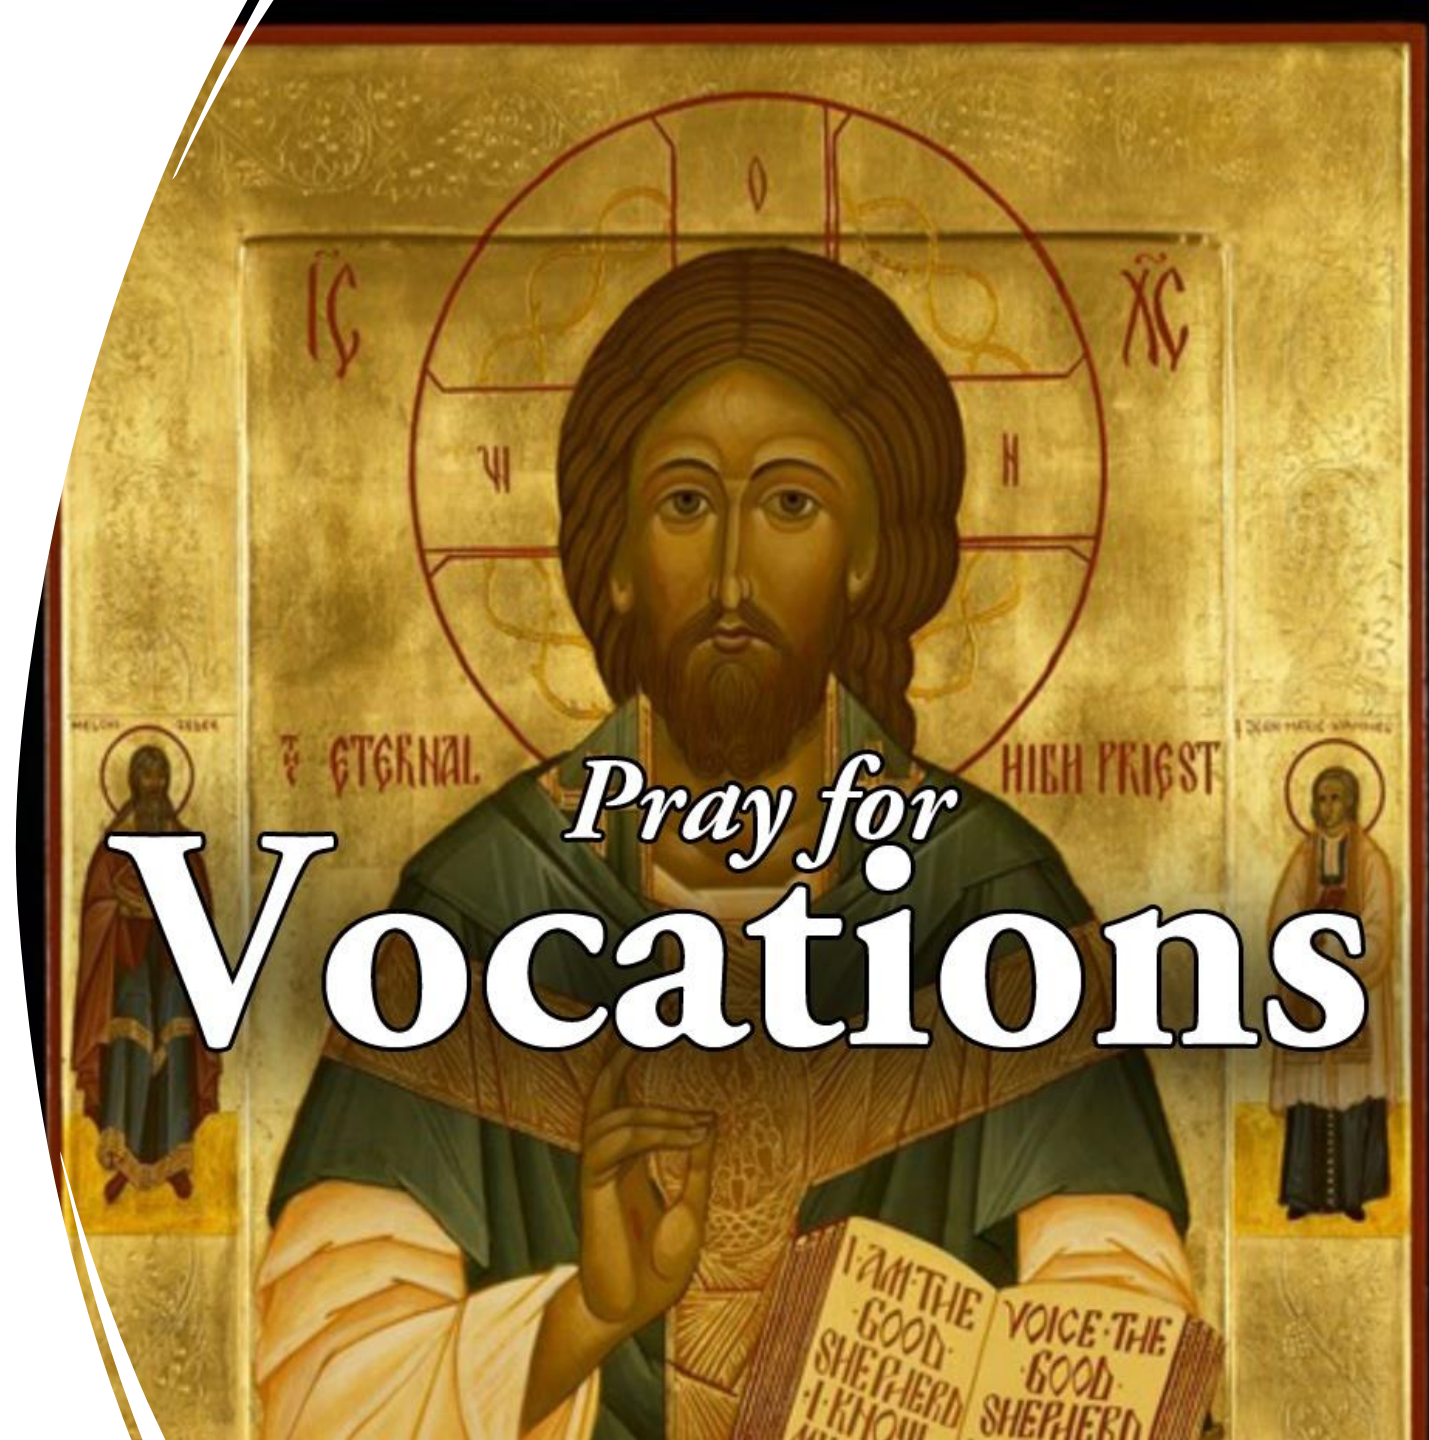

Before sharing information, be sure the person has a work-related need to know. Sharing confidential workplace information with former employees, spouses, family members, or friends breaches confidentiality.

What is KnowBe4?

KnowBe4 is a program that trains organizations to avoid cybercrime attacks. It teaches things like:

- How to spot a phishing attempt (a fake and malicious email!)
- How to create stronger passwords
- How to report suspicious activity
- And much more!

Why is cybersecurity training important?

- 3.4 Billion phishing emails are sent EACH DAY worldwide.
- 90% of data breaches are caused by phishing.
- Hackers imitate trusted brands like Microsoft, Amazon, FedEx, UPS, and banks. Training is needed to tell the real from the fake!
- The amount of $ lost annually to cybercrime is 10x what it was a decade ago.
- KnowBe4 training, provided by the Diocese, will help you protect your personal information, as well as that of your parish and the Diocese.
- Your training is the best defense against scammers. You can create a human “firewall” that scams cannot get past!

KnowBe4 Plans for 2026-27

Thank you for your attention to this training last year.

- Phish Alert Button:
 - This past year, 973 report emails through the PAB
 - 545 of those were simulated phishing attempts
 - 428 were non-simulated emails (keep reporting via the PAB if available)
- This past year, our 'gotcha' score has been slowly declining. This is very good news and good progress. Still, about 5% fell for the fake (and therefore potentially the victim of an attack) so 5 in every 100....

KnowBe4 Plans for 2026-27

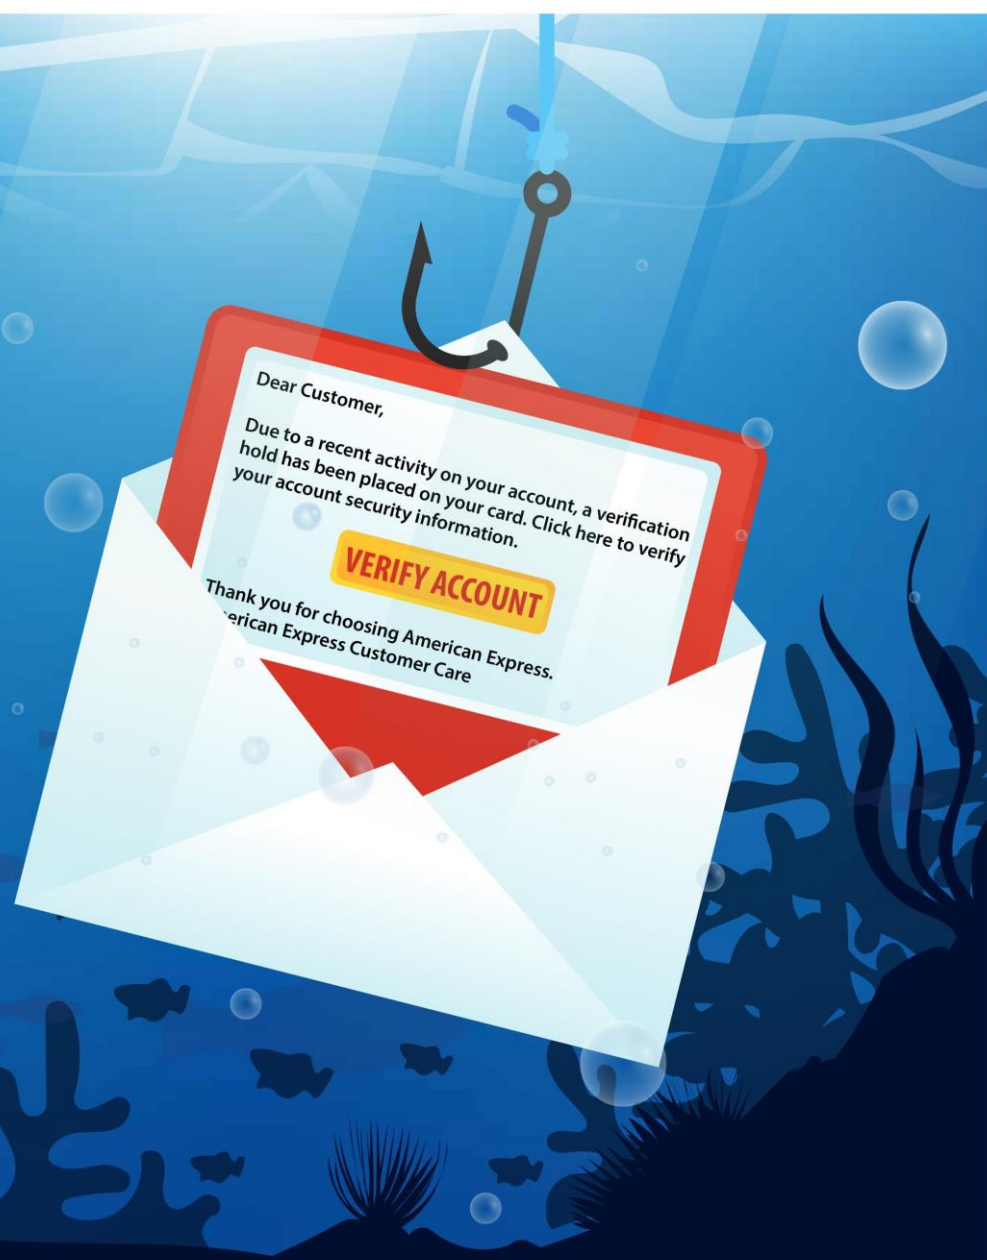

- Clergy particularly continue to be a focus of phishing attempts (directly or indirectly):
 - Specifically, bad actors pretending to be clergy and requesting money/gift cards from others
 - Social media hacking
 - With the advent of AI, voice phishing and other complex attacks are being employed.
 - Etc.
- This year we will:
 - Continue with the email campaigns – so stay vigilant

Cybersecurity

Rules to keep front of mind – particularly for those with bank access:

- Pick up the phone to call or send a direct text to someone to confirm (if you receive a message asking for you to click on something or send something). It takes 2 minutes but can save big!
- Be suspicious .. Until you confirm.
- Ask for support or help before proceeding
 - Criminals use fear, pressure, hurry up (or you will miss out) and just enough accurate details to create a difficult situation.
 - Anytime bank details change, confirm directly with the person/business.

KnowBe4 will help the whole Diocese of Saskatoon be safer from cyber-attacks!

DO YOU TAKE THE BAIT?
